

Vince Gill, Lyle Lovett Bring “Songs and Stories” To East Coast Tour

Charismatic Performers Will Showcase Their Musical Versatility

Nashville, TN – November 18, 2014 -- The always witty Vince Gill and the reliably wry Lyle Lovett have teamed up for a series of late January concerts that will take them down the East Coast from Pennsylvania to South Carolina.

These will be intimate solo and duo performances, during which the artists will serve as their own accompanists.

Both performers have reaped armfuls of Grammys and kindred laurels for their musical versatility and memory-engraving songwriting.

Under the banner “Vince Gill and Lyle Lovett: Songs and Stories,” the two friends will launch the exclusive four-day run on Tuesday, Jan. 27, at the Keswick Theater in Glenside, PA. Additional dates are Bergen Performing Arts Center in Englewood, NJ on Wednesday, Jan. 28, Chrysler Hall in Norfolk, VA, on Thursday, Jan. 29 and North Charleston Performing Arts Center in North Charleston, SC on Friday, Jan. 30.
